...   of BLAST Communications Software, has introduced "Ready-To-Run" automated polling for the VAX.

     With AutoPoll , a polling program now included in the BLAST package, users can automatically collect data from multiple sites running a variety of different operating systems.   AutoPoll was written in the BLASTscript programming language, and is easily modified to suit the user...
